

Building for Our Future is a plan that will allow Newfoundland and Labrador to overcome current fiscal challenges with strength, resilience and innovation. It will allow us to advance opportunities for industry and employment growth, and maintain our commitment to ensuring access to high quality programs and services.

The Honourable Dwight Ball
Premier of Newfoundland and Labrador

$121 Million For Income Supports

$56
Million
For the Seniors'
Benefit

Benefits approximately 47,000
seniors and their families

$65

Million

For the Income
Supplement

Benefits approximately 155,000
individuals and their families

$6.1 Million

Towards the Replacement of the Waterford
Hospital and to expand mental health community support services

On track to return to surplus in 2022-23

Reduced tax on automobile insurance

Almost $620 million for infrastructure and economic stimulus